

SIMON SHAPIRO BETWEEN THE NOISE

Lover of life

words and music by Simon Shapiro

A long walk down the wrong track
I've been gone but now I'm back
And it feels so good to be here
I lay down in a strange bed
Ten years of my life just fled
Don't even know what I was dreaming
But I won't cry For what I'm leaving....leaving behind

Cos I'm a lover of life and I'm a liver of dreams
I'm a toucher of light and I'm a giver of things
I'm a breather of fire I'll be the spreader of wings
Coz I'm a lover of life I'm a lover of life yeah

I've lived long in the wrong skin
I've held on to the strangest things
I'll keep moving till I get there
A long drive in the wrong car
Before I knew it I'd gone too far
At least this road is headed somewhere

Now I don't cry for what I am leaving...leaving behind

Cos I'm a lover of life and I'm a liver of dreams
I'm a toucher of light and I'm a giver of things
I'm a breather of fire I'll be the spreader of wings
Coz I'm a lover of life I'm a lover of life

But I was lost inside a whole
Much deeper than I thought I could go
I was digging out, that's when I found my gold

Do do do.....

I always fight for what I believe in Yeah I know that's right (I'm a lover of life)

Cos I'm a lover of life and I'm a liver of dreams
I'm a toucher of light and I'm a giver of things
I'm a breather of fire I'll be the spreader of wings
Coz I'm a lover of life I'm a lover of life yeah

Do do do.....
