

SIMON SHAPIRO BETWEEN THE NOISE

Someone Else

words and music by Simon Shapiro

Someone else, someone else
You want to be anybody but yourself

Do you want to cry like the angels cry?
Do you want to die like the heroes die?
Do you want to know what the prophet knows?
Do you want to....

Go where lucky people go to places far from here
But you are stuck here on your own
Wishen you were....

Someone else, someone else
You want to be anybody but yourself
Someone else someone else
You got to be anybody but yourself

Do you want to speak like the wise one speaks?
Do you want to sleep like the righteous sleep?
Do you want to give like the good ones give?
Do you want to.....

Live like normal people live, it looks so nice and easy
You'd give everything you own for just one moment
Being....

Someone else, someone else
You want to be anybody but yourself
Someone else someone else
You got to be anybody but yourself

Someone else, someone else.. could be you my dear no less

Powerless, powerless, how does anybody live like this Powerless, it's a mess, how does anybody live like this.....like this

Someone else, someone else
You want to be anybody but yourself
Someone else someone else
You got to be anybody but yourself
Someone else, someone else
You got to be anybody but yourself

But there aint no one like yourself
